

Current & Upcoming Shows

Things We Celebrate – Juried Show

Foggy Morning, watercolor
by Dustan Knight

Thursday, November 5 - Sunday, November 29

Juror: Dustan Knight

Show Description: We welcome works in all media and invite artists to share their interpretation of this theme whether it be a celebration of an event, holiday, memory, person, quality or special object. We see this theme as an expansion of a traditional “thanksgiving” motif.

Opening Reception: Friday, November 6, from 5 – 7pm

Gallery hours Thursday through Sunday, 12 to 5pm

Special Events

Mixed Media & Fiber Arts Meeting

Thursday, November 5, 10 – noon at the YAA Gallery

The York Art Association’s Fiber Arts and Mixed Media Group is planning to have their monthly meeting to explore new techniques, show what projects they are working on. A fiber related mini demo or workshop is included with each meeting. The group will meet at the York Art Association Gallery and Gift Shop located at 394 York St in York, ME. Artists, crafters and writers of all mediums are invited and encouraged to join. Come join in the creativity.

Photography Exchange Group Meeting

Saturday, November 28, 9am – 10:15am, in the gallery

Speaker: Linda Payne-Sylvester

The mission of the new Photography Exchange Group will be to have our member photographers meet once a month to exchange information and ideas, as well as plan photo shoot excursions. The next meeting is on Saturday, November 28, 9:00-10:15am and Linda Payne-Sylvester will be speaking about the dos and don’ts of presentation and marketing of your photography. She will discuss mats, frames, cello bags, printing services, etc. Linda will also introduce various aspects of marketing – networking, cold calling, etc. Feel free to bring along your own information about any resources you’ve found to be useful. There will be a Q&A following her presentation.

Festival of Fostering Trees

Thursday, December 3 – Sunday December 6, 10am -8pm

Foster's Clambake 5 Axeholm Rd. York, ME

If you're looking for something festive and free, not to mention charitable, "Festival of Fostering Trees" is where YOU need to be this winter! It is a breathtaking festival of lit Christmas trees hand decorated and styled by joining forces of the entire community, YAA among one of them!!

Voluntary donations help raise awareness and support for Maine foster kids. Also, giving YOU the opportunity to win any decorated tree of your choice! Don't need a Christmas tree and still want to help? Non-perishable food items or monetary donations for the York Pantry or New Toy for Toys for Tots can be made at the door.

Once you feast your eyes on the thousands of lights as you stroll down aisles of over 100 trees, there is simply no better way to put yourself, friends, and family in the holiday spirit!

Holiday Art Fair and Sale

Thursday, December 10, 12pm – Sunday, December 20, 5pm at the YAA Gallery

Wine and Cheese Preview Party Open to All: Friday, December 11, 5-7 pm

Drop Off Dates: Mon & Tue, December 8-9, from 4 - 6 pm

Holiday gifts galore made by local artisans will fill the gallery during this festive season. There will be 30 local artists selling their creations at the most reasonable pricing and we will all do this with a wonderful gift wrapping option. Please come by – admission is free. If you know someone who would like to sell their art, please let them know that we are looking for things that would be great as a stocking stuffer, holiday gift for under $30 and unique. Artist spots are still open – contact us at gallerymanager@yorkartassociation.com or 207-363-4049.
